

Award presentation

The Swiss BA Award designed to reward a Swiss project having been illustrated by its leadership in Business Analysis.

This price is willing to recognize a particular contribution of the Business analysis in projects taking place in Switzerland.

Admission criteria

To be eligible to the Swiss BA Award, you shall demonstrate the contribution of Business Analysis in the success of a project that took place or ended during the year preceding the year of reward.

The project must be submitted using the application form. The closing date of candidacy is indicate in the application form.

Business Analyse

Business Analyse englobe all the tasks and technics used to ensure the liaison between the stakeholders of a company, in order to understand its, its politic and its structure and to recomend after solutions that will enable this company to reach its goals.

Business Analysis is recognized worldwide by a set of knowledge domains, tasks and technics collected in the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge® (BABOK®).

Application

You participated in a project in Switzerland in which the Business Analysis illustrated itself by its leadership ?

You would like to submit the application of a project achieved in Switzerland by your company ?

Complete the Swiss BA Award application form !

It is accessible in via the site IIBA Geneva > events > Swiss BA Award

<http://congresba.org/>

Evaluation process

A jury will evaluate each project and will ask to the selected teams to present the project for 15 to 30 minutes.

The finalists will then be contacted and invited at the award ceremony of the Swiss BA Award.

Award ceremony

The Swiss BA Award ceremony take place during the Business Analysis conference organized by IIBA Geneva chapter, generally end of March.

Later, the winner will have the opportunity to present its project in a workshop organized by IIBA Geneva, if she/he wishes to do so.

IIBA Geneva

is a non-profit professional for west Switzerland, linking people interested in Business Analysis and its domains of application.

Our mission is to

- promote the standards and best practices of Business Analysis
- recruit the persons interested by this profession
- contribute to the professional development of our members
- create an alive community
- offer networking opportunities
- collaborate to the spreading and recognition of the profession with west Swiss companies.

For more information on the Swiss BA Award 2018, consult

<https://geneva.iiba.org/fr/swiss-ba-award>

or contact us by mail at: info@geneva.iiba.org.